Welcome

Royal Holloway Business and Management courses aim to educate the business leaders of the future. Our ambition is to teach our students the knowledge to run businesses as responsible, digitally enabled, entrepreneurial managers. Studying here will give you the skills to cultivate business environments that work collaboratively and inclusively, you will learn the ability to use technology creatively and analyse data critically.

Having experienced a state-of-the-art education, our graduates have the foundations to become the best leaders they can be. Taking advantage of the opportunities we offer; they are empowered to thrive and disrupt in the fast-changing global world of business.

Business and Management at Royal Holloway

We're passionate about our internationally excellent and world-leading management research, which we use to inform and shape our teaching – taking you to the cutting edge of contemporary theory and practice. You'll learn through a combination of real-world experience and academic expertise - and you can choose from a range of academically stimulating three-year or four-year undergraduate programmes.

We offer programmes across the whole spectrum of business and management; for example from Marketing to Accounting, and Entrepreneurship to Human Resource Management. All of our programmes have a Year in Business option, allowing you to enrich your studies by spending a year out on placement, immersed in the real world of business.

We also have a friendly and diverse school community, allowing you to network with fellow students from all around the world. Students have joined us from over 80 countries, and our academics also hail from across the globe, ensuring our teaching has a truly international outlook.

INTERNATIONAL COHORT

Choosing your business and management degree

The School of Business and Management consists of five discipline-based Research Departments: Accounting and Financial Management, Human Resources Management and Organisation Studies, Information and Operations Management, Marketing and Strategy, International Business and Entrepreneurship.

All of our degree courses follow the same basic structure of giving you a solid foundation to your studies in your first year, followed by further opportunity to find your business niche in your subsequent years. By your final year, along with your mandatory modules you'll have freedom to choose optional modules to suit your own individual passions and interests.

If you choose one of our Year in Business courses, you'll have the opportunity to spend your third year out on placement, before returning in your fourth year to complete your degree. Within the School we have a dedicated office – 'The Placements Place' – which is set up to help you secure a placement and support you whilst you are out on your placement year.

For details of current module options, and our entry requirements, please see our website.

Our state-of-the art library, housed in the Davison Building, opened in 2017. Situated a minutes' walk away from the Moore Building, home of the School of Business and Management, it provides a fantastic space for students to study, relax, and spend time in.

Student life

Business and Management Student Ambassador Scheme

Our Student Ambassador Scheme offers you the opportunity to get more involved in the activities of the School.

Represent us at Open Days and other important events, whilst gaining transferable skills and experience which can increase your employability on graduation. Aside from these benefits, the scheme also allows you to make strong friendships with fellow ambassadors and also have fun whilst you're working.

DIA Initiative

Inside the scheme you also have the chance to join the Diversity, Inclusion and Acceptance group.

This group organises activity to increase inclusion, celebrating diversity of thought, value and talent across all humanity, including working on EDI principals. As part of this group, you will have the opportunity to decide which projects to concentrate on, allowing you to see real impact working on a cause that matters to you, while gaining great career skills.

“From my time in the Ambassador Scheme I gained skills in teamwork, leadership and public speaking. Not only this, I also gained a group of friends that I’d consider family.”

Your future career

Upon graduating, you'll leave with skills, knowledge and an AACSB accredited degree that not only make you attractive to employers in a broad spectrum of careers, but prepare you for further advanced study. We work in partnership with the College Careers and Employability Service to enhance your employability and prepare you for the choices ahead. One-to-one careers coaching sessions are available to assist you in developing your career strategy, whilst CV review services are also available, allowing you to gain the upper hand in the job market.

Here are some companies where our graduates have found employment:

- BMW
- Deloitte
- eBay
- Harrods
- Nike
- Santander UK
- The Walt Disney Company
- Versace
